FROM THE EAST

Greetings from the East,

Brethren, the Masonic year is coming to a close. By the time you read this, our annual election of officers will be completed, and a new Master will have been elected to lead in 2027. Though I will still have until the installation in January to serve as Master, I thought I'd take this opportunity to reflect on the past year.

You may remember my theme for the year was 'Masonry - A Journey Worth Taking'. It has been for me. Serving as Master has marked a milestone in a 35 year journey for me.

It takes a great team of men (and women) to keep this organization going strong and the lodge itself kept-up and able to provide memorable events and warm fellowship. I would like to thank Worshipful Mike Logan for his tireless efforts as our officer's coach. I would like to thank Worshipful Jeff Baker for his efforts to support our lodge rental program. I would like to thank Worshipful Paul Galyean for his continuous dedication to the lodge and to me as Master.

I would like to thank my dad, Worshipful Phil Heiss, who encouraged me throughout my Masonic journey.

If you are a Master Mason, please join us for the 3rd Degree on November 11. If you are a Fellowcraft Mason or Master Mason, please join us for the 2nd Degree on November 18.

If you would like to learn more about Masonry in general or specific Masonic topics, please join us for 'The Symposium', a series of lectures and roundtable discussions held every month.

As I step down as Master, I pledge to continue my efforts to make our lodge enjoyable for its members and to continue growing its membership, no matter my role. Thank you for allowing me to serve as Master.

With Brotherly Love,

Todd Heiss
Worshipful Master

DOES YOUR APRON STILL FIT?

When a new Entered Apprenticed Mason is initiated, the Senior Warden invests the newly initiated Brother with the "distinguishing badge of a Mason. Upon his Third Degree, the newly raised Master Mason takes pride in putting away that apron as he heads home.

Some Brethren keep the same apron for the rest of their lives doing their best to make sure they always fit the apron. By helping whenever needed, being good men and upright citizens, exemplary husbands and fathers, their conduct as men and Masons ensures that they always fit the apron.

Some truly dedicated craftsmen seem to fit the apron so well that other, more colorful, aprons start to seek them out. These are the Masons that other Masons revere as our leaders and who, by following their example, all Masons become better men. This type of dedicated Mason fits every apron he will ever wear.

For some, that apron begins to get a little loose on them. This type of Brother will pay his dues to keep up his membership thinking he is doing his part but sadly will do nothing more. One cannot continuously make withdrawals from the Bank of Freemasonry without being willing to make at least the occasional deposit. These members do not fit their aprons.

Most of us know how well our apron fits when we put it on. Sometimes the apron belt needs to be stretched, but sometimes we need to stretch too. You can stretch to fit your apron by becoming active in your community through service on a local school board, serving the homeless, participating in your church / synagogue / mosque, or coaching a youth sports team. And yes…by coming to Lodge and participating in the activities there.

The question should not be how well our apron fits us, but how well do we fit our Masonic apron.

You won't want to miss our traditional Annual Family Christmas Party! The Bob Baker Marionette Theater has been delighting Angelenos and visitors for over 60 years! Celebrate the most wonderful time of the year with a show chock-full of whimsical wintery characters like penguins, snowmen, Rudolph, and even Santa Claus himself!

This is always a popular event for the children (and the child in all of us). Bring your children, grandchildren and your neighbors' kids to see this fun Christmas production. Don't forget to invite your coworkers too! Everyone will have fun at this special annual event.

And we hear that Santa will be visiting us again, giving gifts to the children in attendance as well as giving them their very own photo opportunity with Santa in his bright red sleigh. Refreshments will be served after the puppet program. Plan to have a lot of fun!
