MASONIC LODGE # 332 F. & A.M.

WWW.SANPEDROMASONS.ORG

JAN - FEB 2026

FROM THE EAST

Greetings from the East.

I would like to acknowledge the leadership of Worshipful Andrew Perry over the past year. His focus on promoting Masonry to prospective applicants and participating in community outreach has positively benefited our lodge. I would also like to thank Mike Logan for his tireless dedication as our officer's coach this year.

I consider it a great honor to serve and would like to thank the members of the lodge for electing me as Master for this year. My theme for this year is "Masonry - A Journey Worth Taking". I like this theme for several reasons.

First, I believe that Masonry is a journey taken in the face of uncertainty. As a young man, I did not know much about it. Oh, I knew that George Washington and other famous historical figures were Masons. I knew that men I respected greatly like my Uncles Rick Clarke and Paul Galyean, and my Dad were Masons. But as a young man I did not know what Masonry held for me. It is that quest for discovery, that quest for knowledge and self-improvement that lead me to the first leap of faith.

Secondly, oftentimes when you embark on a journey you may not know what you're getting into, you learn as you go. Such is a Masonic journey. But just like any journey, if you don't go, you'll never know. The bet is that you will be rewarded at the destination (by being a better man), but I submit that it will be the journey that is the reward (the brothers who share it). This has been a journey of over 30 years for me and I am still learning.

The third reason I like the theme and the slogan is that it ties into my goals for this year. My goal is to have all lodge members participating in mentoring another lodge member. It doesn't take much and the investment will pay great dividends for everyone involved.

I would like to thank Eric Ojeda-Garcia for creating the logo for my Master's pin. It is a sailor's compass, with ocean waves contained by a rope line border, with the square and compass and all-seeing eye as the guide - to provide direction in the face of uncertainty.

The calendar this year will be full of activities, so come out and join us, and if you know a young man who might need direction, tell him to have a look at Freemasonry. Who knows, you might end up being the inspiration for an adventure of a lifetime.

Fraternally yours,

Todd Heiss

Worshipful Master (as of January 10, 2026)

IN MEMORIAM 2025

Our brother has reached the end of his earthly toils. The brittle thread which bound him to earth has been severed and the liberated spirit has winged its flight to the unknown world. The silver cord is loosed; the golden bowl is broken; the pitcher is broken at the fountain; and the wheel is broken at the cistern. The dust has returned to the earth as it was, and the spirit has returned to God who gave it.

A PLEA FOR UNDERSTANDING

(Extracted from a talk by Fordham D. Tabor to Walton Lodge 559 in New York.)

A college student visited one of his former high school teachers asking that he participate in a survey that the college was conducting. His former teacher readily agreed. The first question was, "What do you consider the most serious problem facing our society today?".

There are a number of problems that readily come to mind: the abusive use of drugs, the racial struggle, the battle against environmental pollution, the rebellion against established rules and morals, the trend toward violence, the lack of respect for the rights of others, the economic crisis - these were some which came immediately to mind.

Masons alone cannot solve all the world's problems, nor can Christians, Jews, Hindus, Muslims, or Buddhists. Nor can Americans, Filipinos, Russians, nor can the people of any country do it all. Neither whites nor blacks, browns, reds or yellows can find all the answers. But each, as individuals, can do his part, and the efforts of countless individuals can amount to a relentless, driving force strong enough to overcome any problem.

As Masons, we recognize that with every right there are also obligations to which we are bound - duties we owe to our country, to our families, to our fellowman and to the Supreme Architect of the Universe. In our pursuit of rights, we must circumscribe our desires within the bounds of propriety and a sincere understanding of the common good. We, as Masons, have the tools at hand in these teachings of our Order. We must learn these lessons and we must not leave them at the doors to our lodges but carry them with us into the outside world.

This, then, is how he answered the young man's question. The most serious problem facing our society today is the lack of mutual understanding between people of all races, religions, and social and ethnic backgrounds. In solving this problem we will have taken a major step toward solving all of the other tremendous problems which beset us. No one man or one group of men can do it all, but each can do his part and make his impact on the total problem. We must achieve understanding if our world is to survive.

Retiring Master's Message

My pirate-themed year is coming to an end, and it's time to review some of what has happened this year.

Practically on a dare, I participated in the San Pedro Honorary Mayor Race and raised almost $10,000 for the USS IOWA and Labor Community Services - Los Angeles. I came in second place, and this campaign occupied the first half of the year. Congratulations to Ken Creighton from the San Pedro Wigwam. He is San Pedro's Honorary Mayor.

With Junior Deacon Cleveland Palmer, we started a Masonic Education series called the Symposium, where various speakers spoke about Masonically related subjects. Many minds have exploded since its inception.

This year saw one of the most successful years for the Hall Association, with Hall rentals up exponentially thanks to marketing efforts on the building. It's our win, brothers, and you can thank the Hall Association for that.

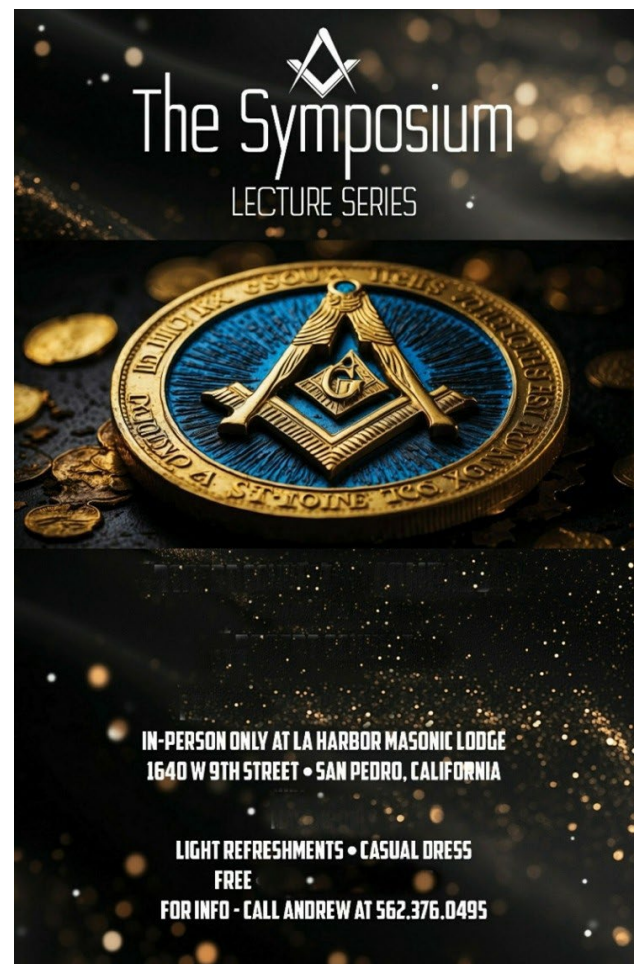

All of the events that we hosted brought in revenue. The Spring Social, the Chili Cookoff, and the BBQ Social were not only very well attended, but they brought in money rather than lost it. Part of this was the strategy of barbecuing in-house. I know how much it costs to cater. It's a lot. But what those potential caterers weren't expecting was that I like to grill and smoke my meats, and I'll do it for free. You can't beat that.

Barbecuing in person, socializing, and sampling various beverages together created the perfect social atmosphere for these events.

Finally, we initiated two people this year: Robert Bleza in the beginning of the year, and Sergio Ramos at the end.

When Brother Todd Heiss steps into his role as Worshipful Master, I will step down to Senior Warden. I will be focusing on candidate advancement and philosophical lectures and roundtables. We have plenty of people interested in joining the fraternity. We have several who are not Master Masons yet. And we have a few brothers whom we have not heard from. I'll focus on addressing these issues.

Andrew Perry, P.M.

The Symposium is a lecture series dedicated to all the different aspects of Freemasonry. All the meetings are at Los Angeles Harbor Lodge #332. Some are open to the general public while others are for Masons only.
