MASONIC LODGE # 332 F. & A.M.

MARCH / APRIL 2019

FROM THE EAST

It seems that time is flying by as we near the end of the first quarter of this year, and a lot has transpired so far with installation seeming like it just happened yesterday. I am happy to see our lodge becoming more active in participating in various Masonic meet-ups and events hosted by different lodges.

We have had an increase in Masonic visitors lately and an increase in prospective members contacting us through email and social media wanting information on our lodge and how they can join. Our Social Nights have been gaining in attendance this year, and it can't go without being mentioned that our Chef Vince is to thank for the wonderful meals he has provided for us on many occasions in the short amount of time he has been attending.

Our Santa Anita Trip was a blast and it was great to see other brothers from different lodges show up to hangout for the day. I hope everyone is enjoying our new 75-inch TV in the Goose n Gridiron. I know we sure did at the Superbowl party, even though the game wasn't full of too much action. Our Sweetheart's Night was very well attended, and the officers had the pleasure of serving dinner to all the ladies of this lodge. I hope everyone enjoyed that evening as much as I did.

We have some big events coming up in the next several months that you surely won't want to miss. Our Entered Apprentice Oscar Garcia's Second Degree is on March 20 at 7:30 PM. We want a good turnout for that evening, so brethren, please make it a priority to be at lodge that evening to support him. We will have refreshments and socialize in the Goose afterwards to celebrate.

Our annual Spring Patio Social will take place on May 19, 2019 at 4:00 PM on our beautiful patio terrace overlooking the city of San Pedro. With a variety of different scotches, wines and appetizers to taste, we are guaranteed to have a great time.

Gentlemen, mark your calendars now and start saving up money for fines, because on June 22nd we will be having our Annual Feast of St John the Baptist. More information can be found on our website at www.SanPedroMasons.org/events for all of these and future events.

With a few hurdles to jump and some curve balls thrown already this year, I am happy to say that this lodge has shown that we aren't going to let anything hinder us from creating an environment full of peace and harmony and where the only contention is who best can work and best agree. Let us continue to manifest what is best for our home. From rental opportunities to ideas you would like to see implemented, please do not hesitate to tell me. Everyone deserves to have their opinions heard and realized if within due bounds.

Lastly, for the members who have returned to lodge recently, I truly appreciate you coming back and supporting the lodge's recent events, and I hope to see you for many more to come. And for those reading this article who haven't been back lately, your home is always here and open to you. "Pulsanti Operietur" - To him who knocks, it shall be opened.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

Joseph Aritelli-Newman
Worshipful Master

FOR REFLECTION

FREEMASONRY AND SECRECY

People sometimes refer to Freemasonry as being a "Secret Society." In one sense the statement is true. Any social group or private business is "secret" in the sense that its business meetings may be open only to its members. In Freemasonry, the process of joining is also a private matter, and its members are pledged not to discuss with non-members certain parts of the ceremonies associated with the organization.

Freemasonry does have certain handshakes and passwords, customs incorporated into later fraternities, which are kept private. They are means of recognizing each other--necessary in an organization which spans the entire world and which encompasses many languages.

The tradition of using handshakes and passwords was very common in the Middle Ages, when the ability to identify oneself as belonging to a building or trade guild often made the difference in getting a job or in obtaining help for yourself and family. Today, Freemasons make the same pledge to every member that he will be offered assistance if he, or his family, ever requests it.

Freemasonry can't be called a "secret society" in a literal sense. A truly secret society forbids its members to disclose that they belong to the organization, or that it even exists. Much of the Masonic ritual is in books called "Monitors" that are widely available, even in public libraries. Most Freemasons wear rings and lapel pins which clearly identify them as members of the fraternity. Masonic lodges are listed in public phone books, Masonic buildings are clearly marked, and in many areas of the country Masonic lodges place signs on the roads leading into town, along with civic organizations, showing the time and place of meetings.

In terms of what it does, what it teaches, who belongs, where it meets, there are no secrets in Freemasonry! It is a private fraternal association of men who contribute much toward the public good, while enjoying the benefits of the brotherhood of a fraternity.

The Goose & Gridiron ROOM
 Los Angeles Harbor Lodge

Greetings from the West

Ahoy my Brothers,

I would first like thank all of the members of our great Lodge for all of your support when my Mom passed away on January 26th. It brings true joy to my heart to know that my brothers were here to support my family and me as we navigated the process of making all of the arrangements and grieving.

On February 5th, I had the opportunity to travel with my best friend to the Historic Wilmington Cemetery on O Street in search of his Grandfathers grave. As we looked around, I could not help but notice all of the Masonic grave stones and the occasional Eastern Star, and this brought several thoughts to my mind. These brethren were our "Ancient Brethren" in a more modern sense. I can only imagine these Masons served their Masters with freedom, fervency, and zeal. Had it not been for the members of Wilmington Lodge #198, lodges like San Pedro, Long Beach and Redondo might not exist. These brethren saw a need for Freemasonry to come into our communities and that is exactly what they did. In the coming months I will be working with the members of our Lodge, Angels Gate Lodge, the DeMolay and Jobs Daughter's to plan an activity to travel to the Wilmington Cemetery and Green Hills to place flowers on the graves of our departed brethren in remembrance of them and the things they did on behalf of Masonry.

As we enter the second half of the first quarter of the year, I am very excited to see where we can take this Lodge. As we have several active prospects in the wings and an Entered Apprentice actively participating and advancing, this could prove to be a very successful year for LA Harbor.

See you in Lodge,

Greg Peterson, P.M.
Senior Warden

Annual Feast of St. John

Saturday June 22, 2019 6:00 PM

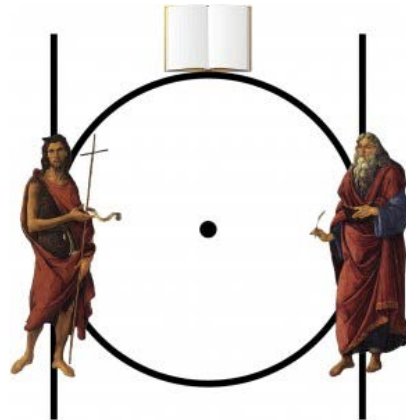

It's that festive time of year when we again gather to eat, drink and be merry - it's the Annual Feast of St. John! If you've attended in the past, you already know this is an event to remember. We are celebrating the 302nd anniversary of modern Freemasonry! Come and join us in all the camaraderie and frivolity as we mark this auspicious occasion.

It's our annual grand 6-course feast with the traditional 7 toasts – where we have fun raising money for the Grand Master's Project. Remember that it is a Black Tie event, and that you should bring that "extra cash" for the usual fines that will be levied by the Master. The event is open to non-Masons, but is a MEN ONLY event.

Tickets are $50, and seating is limited. Tickets are by advance sale only; no tickets are sold at the door.

For more information, visit www.SanPedroMasons.org/events.

For tickets, visit www.SanPedroMasons.org/tickets.

Annual Spring Patio Social

Sunday May 19, 2019 • 4:00 PM

Join us as we socialize...and eat...and sip...and watch the sunset!

We'll be serving an elegant casual dinner on the patio where you'll have the opportunity to sip some unusual wines and/or taste some single-malt scotch whiskies.

This is a great way to unwind and enjoy a lazy Sunday afternoon with your family and friends.

You surely won't want to miss the once-a-year opportunity!

Seating is limited! Get your tickets now to avoid disappointment.

Ladies, Family & Friends are invited!

Tickets $25 per person
